

Family Owned, Industry Acclaimed

Consistently recognized as one of the premier wineries in Napa Valley, the Ladera name has been synonymous with creating preeminent mountain-grown Cabernet Sauvignons, impressive Sauvignon Blancs and alluringly distinctive Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays for America's most exacting wine enthusiasts for the last 25 years.

In an era of large corporate owned businesses, our small, family-owned and operated winery is dedicated to the timeless traditions of artisan winemaking. Lovingly crafted by hand, nurtured barrel by barrel and artfully blended to perfection, our limited-production portfolio of wines is a testament to these practices and the creative mastery of acclaimed winemaker Jade Barrett.

We are honored to be a part of a small and dedicated group of wineries highlighting the magnificent terroir of Howell Mountain in our Reserve and 'S' Cabernet Sauvignons.
